Japanese Film Festival 2017

The Japan Foundation and the Embassy of Japan, in cooperation with the Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts and Cambodia-Japan Cooperation Center (CJCC) will organize the “Japanese Film Festival in Cambodia 2017” from 9 to 12 November 2017, at the Major Cineplex (AEON Mall), Legend Cinema (TK Avenue) in Phnom Penh.

During the four-day, Japanese films selected from a wide range of different categories will be screened at the above-mentioned major theaters in Phnom Penh. As the selection includes cartoon, drama, documentary films and some of which are awarded-winning films, with these film portraying various aspects of Japanese life, society and culture, the Festival will provide a good opportunity for audience to familiarize themselves with Japan and its people.

The 12 Japanese films will be screened with Khmer and English Subtitles. Screening schedule is published at the Japanese Film Festival website at the following link: (<http://kh.japanesefilmfest.org/screening-schedule/>).

Japanese Film Festival is held every year since 2015 to promote the understanding of Japanese life and culture through film screening among Cambodian people.
