

Trust we built, Future we share

Message from the Catchphrase Creator

During my childhood, my father, who loves to watch the history and travel programs on TV, always said “I really want to visit the Angkor Wat someday”. Since then, I have been interested in the geography and the culture of Cambodia.

When I was creating the catchphrase, I not only paid a respect from my heart to the people who have been involved in the history of friendship between our two countries for 60years, but also wished both countries continue strengthening friendship and trust in the future.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the people concerned who gave me this tremendous opportunity to participate in this significant occasion of the 60th Anniversary of Friendship between Japan and Cambodia.
