

JAPAN'S GRANT ASSISTANCE FOR GRASSROOTS HUMAN SECURITY PROJECTS (KUSANONE Grant)

GUIDELINES

1. INTRODUCTION

Established in 1991, Japan's Grant Assistance for Grassroots Human Security Projects (KUSANONE Grant) provides nonrefundable assistance to local governments, NGOs, medical institutions, schools, and other non-profit associations to implement their development projects at the grassroots level. In 2003, the term "Human Security" was added to the grant's name, adopting the concept of not only empowering individuals and communities to be self-reliant but also protecting people from a wide range of factors that directly threaten the lives, livelihoods, and dignity of human beings.

2. ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS

1. NGOs
2. Local Government such as provincial departments (Ministries are not eligible)
3. Other non-profit associations such as medical institutions

Applicants must have at least two (2) years of experience working in the sector of the proposed project within Cambodia. The applicants are also required to demonstrate their ability as well as their past experience to manage finance, personnel, and projects.

(*) Individuals and profit organizations are NOT eligible to apply.

3. PROJECT AREAS

1. As long as the proposed projects benefit people at grassroots level and meet basic human needs, it is eligible for financing under the KUSANONE Grant scheme. For your reference, the following areas account for the majority of the projects approved:
 - (1) Basic education
 - (2) Health and medical care
 - (3) Small scale irrigations
 - (4) Rural development including roads and bridges
 - (5) Water supply and sanitation (*)
 - (6) Vocational training
 - (7) Social welfare (ex. supporting vulnerable people, people with disabilities, and etc.)
 - (8) Humanitarian mine action

(*) In the area of water supply and sanitation, projects to dig wells are given the lower priority under the KUSANONE Grant due to the risk of arsenic problems.

7. APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applicant organizations can apply for the KUSANONE Grant anytime. In case your application is not examined as a project within the fiscal year, it is examined as a project for NEXT fiscal year. In this sense, the KUSANONE grant does not set a deadline for application.

8. PROCESS OF EXAMINATION, APPROVAL AND IMPLEMENTATION

² MOFA: Ministry of Foreign Affairs

9. CONDITIONS AND REGULATIONS

1. Grant Contract

The Grant Contract contains the title of the project, the name of the recipient organization, the rights and obligations of each party, the maximum amount that will be provided for the execution of the project, and the completion date of the project.

2. Grant Usage

The Grant MUST be used properly and exclusively for the purchase of the products and/or services necessary for the project approved. Recipient organizations that use the grant in ways other than specified in the contract or fail to report on the progress, implementation and impact of the project, may be requested to reimburse the grant. Moreover all recipient organizations must use the grant within one year of receipt thereof.

3. Accounting

It would be preferable if the recipient could maintain separate accounting for the implementation of the project.

4. Public Relations

The recipient MUST place official stickers and/or plates bearing the national flag of Japan on all purchased items or building constructed (the design sample is available at the Embassy).

5. Reporting Duties

The recipient MUST submit a project completion report when the project is completed. For most of the projects, the submission of an interim report is also required.

6. Changes from the Original Plan

Should, for any reason, a recipient organization find that it has to modify its project plan, it should consult it with the Embassy and receive its approval prior to alteration of the original proposal.

7. Audit

A project amounting to more than 3 million Japanese yen is subject to external auditing during/after the project's implementation. A copy of the audit report MUST be sent to the Embassy
