

Director Kawaguchi paid respects to the monument of late UNV NAKATA
Atsuhito

On 10th April, Director Kawaguchi of Consular Office of Japan in Siem Reap visited Kompong Thom Province and paid respects to the memorial monument of Mr. NAKATA Atsuhito, United Nations Volunteer, who worked at the United Nations Transitional Authority in Cambodia (UNTAC) and was killed on 8th April, 1993.

The memorial monument of late UNV Nakata was built in the compound of Atsu-School, the place where UNV Nakata passed away. On this day, Director Kawaguchi joined Mr. SUZUKI Shunsuke, Managing Director, AMDA-MINDS, and Mr. SAKANO Issei, Advisor to the Ministry of Justice of Cambodia, who were both co-workers of late NAKATA as UNVs, to pay respects to his monument and remembered his service.
