

Business Trip to Kampong Thom Province by Director YONEZAWA

April 2024

On April 8, Consular Office Director YONEZAWA visited “Atsu School” in Prasat Sambor District, Kampong Thom Province, to pay his respects at the memorial of the late Atsuhito NAKATA, a United Nations Volunteer, who lost his life on April 8, 1993 during the peacekeeping operations in Cambodia. He also expressed his gratitude to the teachers and students of the Atsu school who still hold the achievements of Mr. NAKATA in their hearts and memories.

In the afternoon of the same day, Director YONEZAWA paid courtesy calls on HE Mr. NGOUN Rattanak, Provincial Governor and HE Mr. MEN Ly, Provincial Police Commissioner respectively. The Governor expressed his respect for the achievements of Mr. NAKATA and his appreciation for Japan’s cooperation in various areas including the construction of the water treatment plant and the preservation of the Sambo Prei Kuk archaeological monuments.
