

Ambassador UENO Attended the 32nd Anniversary Memorial Service for Late Police
Inspector TAKATA Haruyuki

May, 2025

On May 4, Ambassador UENO visited Oddar Meanchey Province and attended the 32nd anniversary memorial service for late Police Inspector TAKATA Haruyuki, who lost his life on the same day in 1993. The memorial service was held at the site where Inspector TAKATA was killed in the line of duty while serving as a civilian police officer for the United Nations Transitional Authority in Cambodia (UNTAC) in Banteay Ampil District. In addition to Inspector TAKATA's mother and his sister and her husband, former colleagues from the civilian police team also attended the service. After the memorial service in front of the cenotaph, the participants visited "Takata Haruyuki Elementary School" across the street and interacted with the teachers and students.
